Grand Jury Presentments

Re: Fraud (eligibility), Treason and Election Fraud

WARNING: These are Grand Jury Criminal Presentments. These documents are NOT a lawsuit or a Court filing. The Court named in the Jurisdiction above is being SERVED said Criminal Presentments according to the Constitutional rights as guaranteed to the Citizens of the United States of America.

Any Court clerk, employee, representative, Judge, Prosecutor or Officer of the Court that refuses to accept these Presentments can be held accountable for violating Constitutional law. Such violation may include "Obstruction of Justice" or "Misprision of Treason or Felony." Judicial Article III Courts are required to review and respond to these Presentments.

Jurisdiction: Article III Courts cannot abdicate their own Jurisdiction.

Article III, Section 2 of the United States Constitution

The judicial Power shall extend to all Cases, in Law and Equity, arising under this Constitution, the Laws of the United States, and Treaties made, or which shall be made, under their Authority

The "shall extend to all Cases" is a mandatory statement, as much as it is a universal one. If the Court refuses to extend its jurisdiction to all Cases, then it is acting unconstitutionally. The "arising under this Constitution", clearly explains that it is the duty of the Court to uphold the Constitution.
